

FIFA®

For the Game. For the World.

On the ball?

For our dynamic Legal Affairs Team, we Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) have a vacancy for a

Legal Counsel within the Players' Status department to be filled immediately or by arrangement.

Duties

- Interpreting contracts related to players' employments and transfers; interpreting representation contracts between players/clubs and agents
- Revising transfers and employment litigations that are submitted to the FIFA competent bodies
- Editing player status judgements/decisions as well as answers or petitions to the Court of Arbitration for Sport
- Giving written and/or oral advice on the regulations as well as on general legal issues to players, clubs, member associations, agents, legal advisors, etc

Requirements

- University degree in Law or well-founded legal knowledge (Attorneys degree an asset)
- Fluency in the two FIFA languages English and French (or Spanish), oral and written
- IT-know-how (minimum MS office)
- Self-confidence and diplomacy, excellent communication skills
- Staying power (tenacity, ready to work long hours, working under pressure)
- Accuracy and quality orientation, able to set priorities effectively
- Team player with common sense

You can expect to work in an challenging, dynamic and international environment with a professional and helpful team.

Does this appeal to you? If you think that you qualify for this position and are interested in learning more about this exciting opportunity, we would be interested in meeting you.

Please send your application with CV to:
FIFA, Human Resources, FIFA-Strasse 20, 8044 Zürich
E-Mail: hr@fifa.org

100 YEARS FIFA 1904 - 2004

Fédération Internationale de Football Association
FIFA-Strasse 20 P.O. Box 8044 Zurich Switzerland
Tel.: +41-(0)43-222 7777 Fax: +41-(0)43-222 7878 www.FIFA.com